Activity tie-in: Hiking

Object- Compass

Bible Verse- Isaiah 30:21 “Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, “This is the way; walk in it.”

Lesson- Dangers of traveling without the compass of God’s Word

Introduction Ideas

You might hold up a compass and ask questions- what is this? What is it used for?

You could explain how a compass works

You could ask the students to find an object in the room

You might ask the students to think of a situation where they could use a compass

Lesson Suggestions

Move from you introduction to the idea of being lost in the forest without any cell phones. We need something to help us find our way back- a compass.

Object lesson: Use a compass to show the ability to find the way without anything use guiding your way.

Quote and apply the Bible verse: Isaiah 30:21 “Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, “This is the way; walk in it.”

Questions for Interactive Lesson

When you quote the Bible verse, you could ask students to make the application:

- How is the Bible similar the compass?
  - The compass directs the way here on earth, while the Bible also directs but in a spiritual way.
- How is the Bible like a compass for us as we go out through our lives?
  - Have the students realize how much the Bible guides us in our everyday lives.
  - Ask the students what it would be like to not have the Bible showing us what to do in life.
- How does God show us His grace by being our compass?
  - Discuss with the students how great God’s grace is that he gave us His son that would be the ultimate compass for us in our lives.

Closing Prayer

Heavenly Father, thank you for giving us your Word. It is truly the compass for our lives, guiding us in the right direction. Amen.
