Parts of a Canoe Paddle

Grip = The end of the paddle specially designed for you to grasp with a hand.

Shaft = The long thin part of a paddle that connects the Grip to the Blade

Throat = The lower part of the shaft that starts to widen into the blade.

Blade = The large flat end of the paddle

Tip = The opposite end of the paddle from the grip